Additional holidays/days of special meaning may be incorporated into the above schedule by agreement of the parents or by the Court for good cause.

- (1) The year in which New Year's Day falls determines whether the holiday is in an even or odd-numbered year.
- (2) If Beggar's Night occurs on different nights in each parent's neighborhood, then the child(ren) may participate in Beggar's night in each parent's neighborhood.
- (3) The parenting time for birthdays shall include all children of the parties, not just the child celebrating his/her birthday.
- (4) In the event that the child's birthday is February 29 (Leap Day), in all years without that date, the child's birthday shall be deemed to be March 1 for purposes of this schedule.
- (5) Either or both parents may celebrate additional days of special meaning in which the child(ren) should be permitted to participate. These days of meaning include, but are not limited to, extended family birthday celebrations, anniversaries, religious holidays, and cultural holidays. If a specific day of special meaning is not incorporated in the above chart, then the parent wishing to exercise such day of special meaning may use extended parenting time so that the child(ren) may participate.
