

PROBATE COURT OF CLERMONT COUNTY, OHIO
JAMES A. SHRIVER, JUDGE

IN THE INTEREST OF _____

CASE NO. _____

ORDER

(R.C. 5119.94 (D))

The Petition for involuntary treatment for alcohol and other drug abuse filed on _____ came on for full hearing on _____.

The Court finds from the evidence that the Respondent was served with notice of this hearing on__and that other parties entitled to notice have been served or waived notice thereof.

The Court finds that the Respondent is a resident of_____County, Ohio.

The Court proceeded to hear the evidence and by clear and convincing thereof, the Court finds that the Respondent:

- suffers from alcohol and/or other drug abuse;
- presents an imminent danger or imminent threat of danger to self, family, or others as a result of alcohol and drug abuse, or there exists a substantial likelihood of such a threat in the near future; and
- can reasonably benefit from treatment.

Based upon the recommendation of the Qualified Health Professional, the Court finds that IN / OUT patient treatment is consistent with the treatment goals.

Therefore, the Court orders that_____, Respondent, attend treatment at _____ for a period not to exceed_____, from the date of this decision.

It is ordered that the Respondent shall receive aftercare at _____ for a period of at least three months and not more than six months.

It is further ordered that the Respondent is or is not required to submit to periodic examinations by a Qualified Health Professional to determine if treatment remains necessary.

CASE NO. _____

Failure of the Respondent to abide by this Court Order is contempt of Court and respondent may be sentenced to serve time in the county jail. The Court may also issue a summons directed to the Respondent that demands that the Respondent appear at a time and place specified in the summons to undergo treatment. If the Respondent fails to appear at the specified place and time, the Court may issue an order to a peace officer to transport the Respondent to the place of treatment.

A party shall not assign as error on appeal the Court's adoption of any factual finding or legal conclusion, whether or not specifically designated as a finding of fact or conclusion of law under Civ.R. 53(D)(3)(a)(ii), unless the party timely and specifically objects to that factual finding or legal conclusion made by a Magistrate of the Court as required by Civ.R. 53(D)(3)(b).
